Form's Armssum.—See savertisement.
Gaover's Terrane.—The first-class troupe of ministrels performing at this commodicus and beautiful temple of the drams were welcomed last night by another large and fashionable audience. Their fine songs were listened to with great statention, and much samired, especially by the ladies, and their humorous skylings and doings were the source of much anneasum to the crowd in attendance. "Grover's Theatre" is well adapted to a performance such as they give, the stage being large, and the drawing-room scenery of the most exquisite style. They give the third of their parlor entertainments to-night, and if any of our friends are at a loss to find a place where they can spend an hour or two with delightful pleasure, we say to them, go to "Grover's Theatre" to-night and see the twenty-two ministrals.

Districts Schools.

Another interesting occasion was enjoyed at the Smithsonian Institution yesterday afternoon. The annual distribution of premiums to the pupils of the Third District schools, who had won distinction by good conduct, panoticallity in attendance, and preficiency in studies, look place in the presence of a large and highly interested audience. Every portion of the hall, the specitators the gailery, while his Honor, the Mayor, members of the City Councils, Board of Trustees and others occupied the platform. On a table is front were displayed the medals and premiums, consisting of beautifully bound books of various sizes, which were eagerly watched by curious eyes, uncertain as yet who were to be the fortunate recipients.

The exercises opened with "The Star Span-eyes, uncertain as yet who were to be the fortunate recipients.

The exercines opened with "The Star Spangled Banner," by the Marine Band, followed by a brief and appropriate invocation by the Rev.
Dr. Sunderland. "The Stad Hour of Farting" was then sung by the Female District school,
which was to have been followed by an address by J.esph H. Bradley, Eq., but he being necessarily absent, that portion had to be omitted.
After the "Bed, White, and Blue," by the band, the distribution of medals and premiums took place, each glit being presented by Mayor Wallach, accompanied by brief and pertinent remarks to such recipient, some of whom, in turn, presented his Honor with a boquet of flowers, until the table, at his side, looked like a forsil exhibition.

These exercises were interspersed with excellent singing by the schools. The following pieces were sung:
"Gay and Happy," by junior department, district school; "Miller's Daughter," primary No. 1; "Bats Bpangled Banner," primary No. 2; "The Flag of the Free." primary No. 3; "Columbia, the Land of the Brave." primary No. 5. "The Merry Sunshina," was sweetly sung as a solo, and "There's no Home like my Own." by all the schools, produced fine effect. At the close of these exercises the audience were agreeably surprised by a pleasing episode "not down in the bills"—a presentation of another character. Two sweet-looking little girls, Venny A. Langley and Annie Heyre, members of primary school No. 1, came upon the platform, and in a clear voice each made a neat little presentation speech, accompanying which they presented, the one a magnificent photograph sibum, and the other a beautiful boquat of flowers, to their teacher, Miss Emily E. Tucker, as a token of affection and an expression of gratitude for kindness and patience in the labors and instructions of the past year.
Mr. O. C. Wight, one of the trustess of the third district, received the beautiful gifts on behalf the recipient, in a brief and eloquent speech.
The band then played "Yankee Doodle," and speech.
The band then played "Yankee Doodie," and the company dispersed.

Helic of Barbarism.

We learn that a duel was recently arranged to take place at Arlington Meadows, between Capt. McKenzie, formerly of the British army, and Capt. Whitheld. Col. L. C. Baker, of the Government detectives, having learned of the affair, on Monday took a sufficient force, and proceeded to the Virginia shore. The parties were on the ground, but getting notice of the approach of Col. Baker's posse, they scattered. Capt. McKenzie was arrested and brought to the city, and carried before Justice E. H. Bates, who required him to give $1,000 security under the law for the prevention of duelling. After waiting a considerable time for some one to give the security, Justice Bates committed him to the county jail in default of the bail.

Hogs, Goose and Goats.

Hogs, Geese and Goats.

Bome time since we congratulated our readers on the prospect of the speedy abatement of this nuisance in our public streets. We did so on the strength of the farce order of the superintendent of the Metropolitan Police, by which the force under his commandwer required to enforce the law on this subject. A few hogs and geese were conflictated, one on two pet "billys" lost their lives, and then the thing ded out, and now representatives of porkdom, featherdom and goatdom are as numerous sever, stalking the streets with as much feedom as the most fastidious bipedal specimen of "billy goat." Why is it?

The Festival

Of the Soldiers' Relief Association, held at the residence of Mrs. Farnham, corner of Eleventh and Matteets, was a fine affair. The sum of 223 was secured by the sale of refreshments and flowers. Every one of this money will be appropriated to the relief of the sick and rounded soldiers now in our hospitals. The festival will be continued this evening. Another attractive feature is the presence of the Marine Band.

About haif-past eight o'clock on Monday fore-noon, as Officers Lusby and Harrison were go-ing the usual rounds of their best, an alarm of fire was given by the inmates of fire. James Little's house. The fire was discovered to have originated up stairs, but was put out before any material damage was done.
